"Kristina Ljungström is 'extremely talented' and praised for her 'wide experience of international and complex matters'." Who's Who Legal Construction 2020

"Kristina Ljungström provides an impressive combination of legal, technical and strategic knowledge of great importance in construction disputes. The practice also has impressive associates." Legal 500 Dispute Resolution 2020

Kristina Ljungström is a partner of the disputes-specialist law firm Norburg & Scherp, based in Stockholm, Sweden. Before joining the firm in 2018, she was an associate with a global law firm, working in the Stockholm and London offices and specialising in international arbitration.

Her practice focuses on arbitration and commercial litigation and her experience includes disputes in a wide range of matters and industries, including competition, engineering and construction, energy, landlord-tenant disputes, joint ventures, shareholder agreements, licence agreements and sales contracts. Her experience covers domestic and international litigation and arbitration proceedings under various international rules, including those of the SCC, ICC, SIAC and UNCITRAL, as well as ad hoc arbitration. She also serves as arbitrator and has completed the 2019 Training Programme for Arbitrators arranged by the SCC and the Swedish Arbitration Association.

Kristina Ljungström is a member of the board of Young Arbitrators Sweden. She is also a frequent speaker at Swedish and international events and conferences in the field of arbitration, and has been engaged as guest lecturer at Swedish universities, teaching mainly arbitration and construction law. Her expertise is recognised by international ranking institutes such as the Legal 500 and Who's Who Legal who has named her Next Generation Lawyer, Future Leader and National Leader within arbitration and construction.
